Interested Persons Record and Service List

Under the 2004 revisions to Chapter 117, the Development Review Board has certain administrative obligations with respect to interested persons. At any hearing, we must provide an opportunity for each person wishing to achieve interested person status to demonstrate compliance with the applicable criteria [24 V.S.A. §4461(b)]. The Development Review Board shall keep a written record of the name, address and participation of each person who has sought interested person status [24 V.S.A. § 4461(b)]. A copy of any decision rendered by the Development Review Board shall be mailed to every person or body appearing and having been heard [24 V.S.A. §4464(b)(3)]. Upon receipt of notice of an appeal to the environmental court, the Development Review Board shall supply a list of interested persons to the appellant within five working days [24 V.S.A. § 4471(c)].
